

A Community of faith, led by God's spirit, offering Christ to the World

What Have You Done For Me Lately?

September 18, 2022

This has been a busy time here at Wynnton these last three months. We've talked about our family, the amazing family of God that we have here. We spent time building back our family, and getting ready to bring back our lost. Then we brought that home by opening our doors up. We spent a month talking about how important that family we have is, and how they are out there waiting for us. It was time to go get them. That culminated in this past Sunday, where we had our Welcome Back Service. It was a great time of fellowship and family as we sat around the table together.

And let me tell you, we brought people home that day. We had a great opportunity to see all the ministries that God has blessed this church with. Everyone explored the ministry fair and learned about our missions, our studies, our groups, and everything else that Wynnton is doing as the hands and feet of God.

And now, I know what you're thinking: What now? Where does Wynnton go from here?

Over the next few weeks that is what we are going to be talking about, "What now?" And that starts with some important tasks:

Pray: Be in continual prayer for Wynnton. I know you were praying for our Welcome Back Service, but don't stop now! Keep praying for our family and Keep praying for God's work here.

Tap into community: Join a Bible study, a Sunday school class, the quilting group. There are so many options within these walls to grow together. Find the community that fits you and see what God can do with it.

And finally, Step-Up: The great thing about our Ministry Fair Sunday was that it gave all of us an opportunity to see what this church is doing. But now is your chance! Step-up and take part in something new. Even if you are already involved in ministry, there is always something more we can do to serve God. Be creative, be inventive, be like Christ.

We've got a job to do here on Wynnton Road, all of us. God is not done yet, and neither should we be.

By His Grace,
Will

JOYFUL NOTES FROM THE CHOIR! 🎵

John Wesley adapted the Covenant Prayer, number 607 in our hymnal, from the Puritan tradition that was so important to his parents. The Prayer describes the life of a participant with Christ in his mission. It is a prayer of action focused on a desire to be useful in our service to God and to "freely yield all things" to His will. This Sunday the Chancel Choir will sing Wesley's Covenant Prayer, I Am No Longer My Own, powerfully, and beautifully set to music by composer Mary McDonald.

"I Am No Longer My Own" by Mary McDonald
*I am no longer my own, but yours!
Put me to what you will, rank me with whom you will;
Put me to doing, put me to suffering.*

*Let me be employed for you, laid aside for you,
be exalted for you, or brought low for you.
Let me be full, let me be empty,
Let me have all things, let me have nothing:
I freely yield all things.*

*And now, glorious blessed God,
Father and Son and Holy Spirit,
You are mine and I am yours. So be it!
Amen!*

Luke 9:23

Then he said to them all: "Whoever wants to be my disciple must take up his cross and daily follow me.

God's Great Peace to You!
Diana B.

READING THROUGH THE BIBLE

Walking Through Proverbs Starting Reflection September 18-24

We've now had our reading plan about Proverbs going on for a little while, and I hope you're getting something out of it. We have two weeks, including this one, left of Proverbs before we start a new book. And you might have noticed, the topic of wisdom comes up a lot in these verses. So, what is all this for? Why are we being told to avoid wickedness, not to be lazy, not to be cruel, not to be greedy, and so many other things? It means realizing something that we have been talking about so much here at Wynnton: We're a family, both us inside these church walls and those outside them. This shows us just how much God cares about the amazing family He has built. God wants each and every one of us to act with wisdom and compassion towards our brothers and sisters. So, act with Wisdom, as God asks of us. -Will

The collection of items to fill our Christmas Child boxes is going well. This is just one of many missions in our church. Just a few points to keep in mind.

- We will have a packing party Sunday, October 30th during Take 5 to prepare the boxes. If you are gathering your items at home, you can get boxes or you can bring your items and pack them with us at the church.
- Walmart Neighborhood Market has plenty of crayons and other school supplies. Can't have too many of those. (We will share extras with Wynnton School or Open Door.)
- Please read the list below showing what we have so far (and our goal is 200 boxes).
- Thank you for all the items that have been brought in. Keep collecting!
