

A Community of faith, led by God's spirit, offering Christ to the World

The Full Story Told In a Song

December 25, 2022

I really do love the amazing opportunity to continue to hear the story of Christmas through the music of the season. It does not matter if it is a hymn or a crazy song like Grandma Got Ran Over By a Reindeer, they all tell a story that helps us to get into some type of Christmas spirit. Throughout the years, I have been able to receive emails or books that tell about the how the songs of Christmas tell a story.

So as I think through the fact that Christmas is vastly approaching us this week, I wanted to share with you one of my favorite songs that someone sent the meaning behind the words. It truly caused me to see the song in a brand new light, and it allows me to receive the message of the song in an amazing new way. The name of the song, The Twelve Days of Christmas. The "12 Days of Christmas" referenced in the carol reference the 12 days following Christmas, also known as Twelvetide in Christianity. The period begins with the birth of Christ on December 25th and ends with the coming of the Three Wise Men on January 6th, also known as the Epiphany or Three Kings Day.

Though some scholars believe that the song is French in origin, the first printed appearance of the song was in the English children's book Mirth With-out Mischief. If you haven't heard of it, that's probably because it was published in 1780. Regardless, there are many who wonder if the lyrics have a hidden Christian meaning to resonate beyond time and space. There is no true proof if they do or don't, but here is what I have found the lyrics to mean:

- * The 12 Drummers Drumming are the twelve points of doctrine in the Apostle's Creed.
- * The 11 Pipers Piping are the eleven faithful apostles.
- * The 10 Lords A-leaping are the ten commandments.
- * The 9 Ladies Dancing are the nine fruits of the Holy Spirit. (Love, Joy, Peace, Patience, Kindness, Goodness, Faithfulness, Gentleness, and Self-Control) Galatians 5:22-23
- * The 8 Maids A-milking are the eight beatitudes. Matthew 5:1-10
- * The 7 Swans A-swimming are the gifts of the Holy Spirit. (Prophecy, Serving, Teaching, Exhortation, Giving, Leading and Mercy).
- * The 6 Geese A-laying are the six days of creation.
- * The 5 Golden Rings are the first five books of the Old Testament-Pentateuch (Genesis-Deuteronomy).
- * The 4 Calling Birds are the four gospels and/or the four evangelists. (Matthew, Mark, Luke & John)
- * The 3 French hens are Faith, Hope and Charity, the theological virtues.
- * The 2 Turtle Doves are The Old and New Testaments.
- * The Partridge in the Pear Tree is Jesus Christ.

I know that this may or may not be the true meaning behind the words to this iconic Christmas song, but in my heart, it helps me to remember the true reason we celebrate Christmas. As we welcome the LIGHT into the world once again this week, may we forever carry the doctrinal beliefs of our faith found all throughout God's Holy Word.

Merry Christmas,
Jason

JOYFUL NOTES FROM THE CHOIR! 🎵

Our Christmas traditions are a beautiful way to connect and inspire us as we prepare to celebrate the birth of our Savior. One of my favorite traditions is joining together on Christmas Eve to sing the lyrical and reverent hymn Silent Night. As we close our service with this beloved Christmas hymn, each person receives the light of Christ and passes it on. It is profound to see the Christ Light illuminating the faces of our members as we receive the Light. The story of the origin of Silent Night is as beautiful as the hymn itself.

Originally titled "Stille Nacht," the song was first performed on Christmas Eve in 1818 in Oberndorf, Austria at the St. Nicholas parish church. In 1817, a young priest, Father Joseph Mohr, had come to the area. The year prior, in 1816, Mohr had written the poem "Stille Nacht." As the young priest walked through a silent town one Christmas night, he was inspired to write "Stille Nacht" as he looked out at the peace and beauty of a winter-laden town. On December 24th, 1818, Father Joseph Mohr asked his colleague Franz Gruber, the parish organist, to set his Christmas poem to music. Mohr and Gruber would sing the melody, the choir would join in and the accompaniment would be for solo guitar played by Mohr himself. It is believed by many that the piece was originally played on guitar because the parish organ was not working on that Christmas Eve. Years later organist Franz Gruber describes the result of their musical collaboration; "On the very same evening, I fulfilled the musical curate's request and the simple composition was performed on the holy night to the acclaim of everyone." Silent Night was born.

READING THROUGH THE BIBLE

Advent Readings 3

December 25-31
Matthew 1:1-23

This week we will be reading about Joseph. Too often we overlook the importance of Joseph in the Christmas story, but he played an important role in the childhood of Jesus. Joseph was betrothed to Mary. That's when he found out that his soon-to-be wife was pregnant. Betrothal is different than the engagement we would think of. If he wanted to break his engagement, then it would be much closer to a divorce. So, Joseph intended to quietly divorce Mary to save her any embarrassment. That is when an angel of the Lord appeared to him in a dream. Joseph decided to take the role of father for Jesus, and he decided to care for both Jesus and Mary. Joseph helped Mary raise the Christ child so he could save the world.

Epiphany Readings: January 1-7
Luke 2:1-12

This week we will be reading about the Magi. Sunday, January 8th, we will be celebrating Epiphany Sunday. It is a time to remember the visit of the Magi, and the significance of the knowledge of the birth of Jesus to all the world, not just the Jewish people. The Magi came from a different land, and because of their cultural differences and status, were thought of as kings. They studied the heavens and the prophecies of the past. Because of this, they noticed the difference in the star that lit up over Bethlehem. They were of a different culture, they had a different set of beliefs, but they knew that when even the stars bowed to the birth of that child, He would grow up to change the world.
