“Evangelism Must Be A Daily Application”

June 4, 2023

As we move through our series surrounding Mark 4, it all begins with the after effect of a seed falling on good soil. It means that we have to realize that for evangelism to occur, there must be a daily application applied in our lives. We have to be willing to change our mindset and seek opportunities to tell others about Jesus. See, the early Church understood that model. In Acts 2:42-47, they were willing to do whatever it took to reach people for the Kingdom of God. Are we willing to do the same?

Growing up all of my life as a ginger, I know that there is always a possibility that I could get burned by the sun. I wake up every day with that knowledge. So much so, that a nurse friend of mine said that all gingers, unless they are able to tan, should put on sunscreen every day of their lives for protection. She said that I should apply sunscreen multiple times a day in hopes of me not eventually developing any type of skin cancer. In reality I know that I should do this to help create a better opportunity for life, but just like many of us, I don't think about it on a daily basis. When do I think about it? When I am heading to the beach, after a couple of hours on the golf course or when it is already too late and I am already fried. I missed my opportunity because I have not made this a permanent part of my daily routine.

Once the early Church experienced the power of the Holy Spirit, their entire lives were different. Scripture says that they were willing to meet daily and craved the teachings and discipleship of the Apostles. They were willing to do whatever had to be done in order that others could encounter the amazing power of the Gospel. And God added to their number DAILY!

Church, it is time to take a step into the next phase of our life together. We have to be willing to use the summer to prepare the fields for what God is going to bring to our campus in the days ahead. We have to make a concerted effort to apply God's Word daily into our lives and share what God is telling us with the world. WE must desire to grow deeper in our faith and look for more opportunities to reach our community that is right outside the walls of Wynnton.

So I am asking for us all to begin earnestly praying for the days ahead. I pray specifically for families to have a desire to come back on our campus and yearn to learn more about God. I pray specifically for any opportunity God needs, to use everything that we have, to plant a seed, prepare a soil, water, weed, fertilize or nurture the people God brings to our campus. Finally, I pray specifically that we continue to think outside the box and allow the world to know the power of the Gospel because we are willing to apply God's Word daily to our lives. Evangelism MUST be a DAILY APPLICATION and not just when we think about it. Evangelism must become so natural as breathing in our lives. God has a plan for Wynnton. We are in the right place to make this happen. Pray for the days ahead... it is going to get really exciting.

In His grip,

Jason

JOYFUL NOTES FROM THE CHOIR! 🎵

Michael Houdman of "Got Questions Ministries," characterizes the Holy Trinity this way: "The Father is my Creator, the Son is my Savior, and the Spirit is my Comforter. To God be the glory, great things He has done!" This Sunday, Trinity Sunday, our Choirs will sing anthems of praise to God in three persons, our blessed Trinity! The Wesley Choir will revive the rhythmic "Come, Now Is the Time to Worship with Holy, Holy, Holy" arranged by Stan Pethel. Our Chancel Choir will sing a Choir and Congregation favorite, "Holy Is He" by Grammy award winning composer David T. Clydesdale. This is a powerful anthem of praise and majesty which incorporates the hymn "Holy, Holy, Holy" on the last verse. This familiar hymn by Reginald Heber reinforces the holiness of one God in three persons; equally divine yet one. Hymn composer Heber stresses the importance of the Holy Trinity in this hymn in his choice to repeat the word "Holy" three times to represent the Triune God. For music theory buffs, the use of the D major triad throughout the hymn is symbolic of the Holy Trinity.

"Holy is He" arr. by David Clydesdale
(Refrain)

Holy is He and great is His glory. Holy is He and worthy of our praise. I stand in His presence amazed, and crown Him with worship and praise! Holy is He, Holy is He, Holy is He.

1. Who pardons my iniquities, who heals me from within? Who lifts my fallen life and sets me on my feet again? Who leads me like a shepherd when I've gone astray? My Lord, My God, My Jesus, the One I praise today! (Refrain)

2. Who hears me in my loneliness, who finds me where I hide? Who knocks outside my broken heart, til I let Him inside? Whose life deserves the honor laid before His throne? My Lord, My God, My Jesus, My Savior and my own! (Refrain)

Holy, holy, holy, Lord God Almighty! All Thy works shall praise Thy name in earth and sky and sea; Holy, holy, holy! Merciful and mighty! God in three persons, blessed Trinity! Holy is He. Amen!

Matthew 28:19-20

Therefore go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teaching them to obey everything I have commanded you. And surely I am with you always, to the very end of the age.

God's Great Peace to You!

READING THROUGH THE BIBLE

MOSES SCRIPTURE READINGS

Week 8

This week, our readings are based on the Old Covenant between God and His people. Moses had led them out of Egypt, and now they were only answerable to the Lord God Almighty. God has been taking care of them as they wandered, as well as freeing them from slavery, and now it was time that they learned how to pay homage to Him. "Then he took the Book of the Covenant and read it to the people. They responded with 'We will do everything the Lord has said; we will obey.'" The original covenant and all that came with it were built upon that idea. They were to trust in the Lord, obey Him, and lean into Him always. The New Covenant that Jesus brought to us was built on the original covenant. It all comes back to remembering that we must stay true to the Lord. Because just as He saved the Hebrew people from the world, so too will he continue to save us.
